A NOTE FROM YOUR HOA

The sunniest months are upon us, the kids are out of school, and summer fun is in full swing! This is the perfect opportunity for homeowners to build community relationships. While summer is a popular time for swimming and dive-in movies, not all homeowners take advantage of outdoor amenities, because sometimes it's better to stay cool indoors!

Here is some fun alternatives for summer HOA SOCIAL EVENTS

HOST A POTLUCK RECIPE EXCHANGE Try hosting a BYO (Bring Your Own) event. Pick a date and a meeting location, and invite neighbors to bring a favorite potluck dish and its recipe. Many homeowners will be happy to share summertime treats and exchange recipes with neighbors!

START A SUMMER BOOK CLUB OR BOOK SHARE PROGRAM Reading is a great way to keep your mind engaged and stay out of the heat at the same time. Homeowners are sure to have recommended reads they're willing to share with neighbors. If enough people are interested, you could even start a book club where homeowners can get together weekly to discuss and share what they've read.

OPEN A CRAFT CAFÉ Meridiana has a lot of families with young kids! You can host a weekly or monthly crafts activity with snacks. This activity would be a great fit for the community conservatory! Low-cost craft supplies can be found at the local dollar store, and we'd even venture to guess that parents wouldn't mind paying a few dollars to get kids out of the house and creative every once in a while! This activity also gives parents the opportunity to talk, get to know each other better, and build supportive relationships.

HOLD A NEIGHBORHOOD TALENT SHOW Every community has tons of talented people - whether they can sing, perform magic tricks, or show off an unusual skill. A neighborhood talent show is a great way to bring neighbors together and let them showcase their talents. It will also be an event that everyone is sure to remember!

ORGANIZE SUMMER STORYTELLING EVENTS Kids love hearing stories, and a great way to give them a break from mom and dad's typical tales is to have other homeowners read to them. Retired homeowners may especially love the opportunity to bring smiles to young faces by sharing their favorite stories.

OFFER COMMUNITY CLASSES Try offering a summer learning series, where residents give informal classes in their areas of expertise. For example, a nurse can give a first aid class, a construction worker can show residents tips and tricks for household tools, and a secretary can provide a short training session for Microsoft Word or other similar programs.

HOST A WEEKLY GAME DAY There are plenty of games and activities that can be played indoors, like Twister, Scrabble, Bunco, Checkers, or Chess . . . You name it! Set a regular day and time during the week, and have residents bring their favorite game to the Retreat. If the Retreat is unavailable, homeowners can take turns hosting the event in their homes. This is a great way to get neighbors together, and it's free!

While these suggestions are by no means the be-all and end-all of summer activities, we hope they give you some great ideas to liven up the summer months. Programs and events like these can strengthen your community and make Meridiana stand out as a fun, engaging place to live.

MERIDIANA CONTINUES GROWTH, ADDS TOLL BROTHERS TO BUILDER LINE UP

Meridiana has added Toll Brothers to its line up of acclaimed new home builders as the award-winning community minutes south of Pearland continues its impressive growth.

Toll Brothers will add distinctive new homes in an exclusive, gated section of 50-foot Meridiana homesites. Several floorplans “designed for the way you live” feature a spacious Great Room with 18-foot ceiling, open-concept island kitchen, primary bedroom suite with walk-in closet and spa-like bath, flex/game room and private secondary bedroom with full bath for overnight guests.

Toll Brothers has started construction on several move-in ready homes while a fully furnished showcase model opens soon in Meridiana’s new model park at 5311 Dream Court.

Among its numerous accolades, Toll Brothers has been honored as National Builder of the Year by BUILDER magazine and was twice named National Builder of the Year by Professional Builder magazine.

Meridiana residents enjoy unlimited use of the community’s waterfront, resort-style Oasis Village featuring Café Sol, family pool with cabanas, lap pool, splash pad, fitness center, fishing pier, outdoor play area, all-weather ping pong and foosball tables, shaded sitting areas and lush central lawn.

The community’s second amenity village, Adventure Cove, opens next summer complete with wave pool, tidal river, recreation pool, fitness center, central lawn, outdoor fitness space, large pavilion and food truck park.

Residents also enjoy 100+ acres of parks and more than 50 miles of paved trails for walking, jogging and biking.

One of the nation’s 50 top-selling master-planned communities, Meridiana is the only Texas 288 community with multiple onsite schools including Meridiana Elementary and the recently opened Jackie Doucet Caffey Junior High School. Iowa Colony High School, located adjacent to the community, opens in August while an onsite early childhood education center, Future Explorer’s Academy, opens in early 2023.
